

Grieving the Dream

© Copyright Mike Slinn written Jan-Feb/94

Em
My lover is dead

My woman is gone

D/F#
No more will I see

Together we can't be

G D/F#
I never really knew

Em
What it was that we went through

G D/F#
Too clever, I fantasized

Em D/F# / /
I grieve, the dream has died

Em
Didn't know who she was

She was as blind as I

D/F#
Farther than distant shores

Love became a chore

G D/F#
Years later, here I cry

Em D/F#
Mourning that old lie

G D/F#
I made it to myself

Em D/F# / /
Without inner health

Em
The woman in my mind

I created now has died

D/F#
She died a painful death

F#o B7 F#7
I've cried and need to rest

F#o B7 F#7
Still... I wonder

Am G
Wah...

D/F#
Oh, woe

Am G
Ah, ah, ah...

D/F#
Oh, woe

F#o B7 F#7
Ah, to love again

F#o B7 F#7
To love again

F#o B7 F#7 (tacit)
Ahh...

Em
Or live alone

And play with other's children

D/F#
They are so deserted

And they feel so lonely

Am G
People seem so numb

D/F#
Only know their feelings

Am G D/F#
When it's over and they're reeling

F#o F#m6 F#m
From disaster

F#o F#m6 F#m
It's too late

F#o F#m6 F#m
Ah... coming after

(chords)
