

We Miss You But

Chorus:

The most adaptable are the ones that flourish.

This is a time of change.

This is our time.

Verse 1:

We were good friends, good allies, we wish you well.

But you have changed.

We must respond to the new reality.

We wish you well,

For tomorrow we will still be here, beside you.

Chorus

Now we realize the importance of having many connections to the world, and no longer rely on the easy, cheapest and most comfortable option.

We grow, we make new connections, new friends, new partners.

Our ancestors still remind us how.

Tomorrow we will still be here, beside you.

Chorus
